Alum Spotlight

Terri Sevene Cappucci '93

An exciting elective course in photography with Budge Hyde changed the direction of Terri Cappucci's life. Combine that with a great writing course with Joanne Hayes and you get the making of a photojournalist. After graduating from GCC, Cappucci worked as a news photographer while earning her bachelor's and, eventually, her Master's in Fine Arts from UMass. She went into teaching, all the while pursuing a passion that would utilize the skills she first learned at Greenfield Community College.

That passion is South Africa. Cappucci has been documenting the social and political changes that have taken place since the end of apartheid. "There's no free education for children in South Africa," says Cappucci. "My goal in life is to help address that problem."
